Lesson (D)

Making conversation

1 Have some topics ready to start a conversation. Say something about the weather or the place you're in. Talk about the weekend – we all have something to say about weekends!

2 Make the conversation interesting. Know about events in the news. Read restaurant and movie reviews. Find out about the current music scene or what's new in fashion or sports.

3 Be a good listener. Keep eye contact and say, "Yes," "Hmm," "Uh-huh," "Right," and

4 Don't be boring. Don't just say, "Yes" or "No" when you answer a question. Give some interesting information, too.

5 Don't talk all the time. Ask, "How about you?" and show you are interested in the other person, too. People love to talk about themselves!

6 Ask information questions. Ask questions like "What do you do in your free time?" or "What kind of food do you like?" Use follow-up questions to keep the conversation going. But don't ask too many questions – it's not an interrogation!

7 Be positive. Negative comments can sound rude. And if you don't want to answer a personal question, simply say, "Oh, I'm not sure I can answer that," or "I'd rather not say."

8 Smile! Everyone loves a smile. Just be relaxed, smile, and be yourself.

"I know." And say, "Really? That's interesting." It encourages people to talk.

Punctuation

Why do we need punctuation?

- Punctuation allows the authors writing to be easy to read and understandable for the reader.

Types of Punctuation

Capital letter – Comma – Question mark – Quotation mark – Period

- 3. Use a period (.) at the end of a statement and a question mark (?) at the end of a question.

Lesson C

Hobby groups

Some Young People's Hobbies

There are many hobbies and hobby sites on the Internet. Camping and chess sites are two of them. Although these two hobbies are very different, they have one thing in common: both are very popular with young people. Why?

One reason camping is so popular is because it's cheap. There are campgrounds around the world, and they're all different. Some have indoor swimming pools and restaurants. Others don't even have water! But the areas near campgrounds are almost always beautiful.

Camping is relaxing. Campers can get up early in the morning and cook breakfast with their family. They can spend the day swimming, fishing, going hiking in the mountains, looking at wildlife, or just reading. There's usually no noise, no traffic, and no stress. Campers usually sleep very well at night.

And what about chess? It's cool now, but in the past not many young people played the game. A lot of young people got interested in learning chess when they saw it on TV. And many famous people enjoy playing chess. Young people often follow what famous people do, even if it's chess!

More and more schoolchildren are learning the game. Many schools have chess clubs, and there are national competitions every year. And people can play chess on computers, too. That means a person can compete against a computer, or can even play against a friend or cousin on the Internet. You can play chess anywhere – even when you're camping!

B. Read the article again. Then write T (true) or F (false) for each sentence. Correct the false sentences.

1. Camping and chess have nothing in common. F

They have one thing in common.

2. Camping is popular because it's cheap and stress-free. T

3. Campers hardly ever sleep well at night. F

Campers usually sleep very well at night.

4. Many young people played chess in the past. F

In the past, not many young people played chess.

5. The first Harry Potter movie helped make camping popular. F

TV shows helped make chess popular.

6. Many schools now have chess clubs. T

7. You can go camping on the Internet. F

You can't go camping on the internet.

Conjunctions: and, but, or, also, and because.

We use and, or and but to connect two parts of sentences which are similar in grammatical.

For example:

1. I do photography, and I like art.

2. I also like books, especially history books.

3. I don't like biographies or poetry.

Contrast two ideas

I like climbing, but my friends don't.

Give a reason

I can't go on vacation because I have some work to do.

2 My favorite hobby

Writing A Read about this hobby. Complete the sentences with and, but, or, also, or because.

Message Board

Rock climbing

One of my hobbies is rock climbing. I go once or twice a month with my friends. We prefer to climb the mountains near my house because they are really beautiful. We usually go to Bear Mountain or to Kennedy Park. I prefer Kennedy Park because it's nearer. Kennedy Park also has a great campground.

It's great to be outdoors, but the weather isn't always very good. If it's raining or snowing, climbing can be very dangerous because the rocks get wet and slippery.

I can also go rock climbing indoors, especially during the winter. Sometimes my friends and I go climbing at the mall, but it's not the same. I just go once a month, usually on a Thursday or Friday.
