

William Wordsworth → Major English Romantic Poet.

The Daffodils → I wandered lonely as a cloud

William Blake → An English poet, painter and printmaker.

He died very poor.

The Tyger → Tyger, Tyger, burning bright.

Jane Austen → An English novelist whose wrote works of romantic fiction.

Pride and Prejudice → about themes of Love and marriage.

The main characters are Mr. Darcy and Elizabeth Bennet.

Charles Dickens → An English novelist.

• The greatest novelist of Victorian Period.

• He was from poor background.

A Tale of Two Cities → The book's message is that Revolution is not good thing.

Shakespeare → He was born in Elizabethan period. He wasn't from rich background. He was poet and playwright.

Sonnet 18. The theme of love and beauty.

Shall I Compare thee to a summer's day?

Andrew Marvell → an English Metaphysical Poet.

He wrote his poem after civil war 17th C.

Garden → See how flowers, as at parade.

John Locke → An English philosopher.

"Father of Classical Liberalism"

He wrote about liberalism and he focused on ^{role} of law, free of religion and Private Property.

Adam Smith → Scottish Moral Philosopher and economics.

"Father of Economics"

Smith's idea of invisible hand.

Rupert Brooke → Irish Poet.

"the handsomest young man in England"

The Soldier → If I should die, think only this of me.

good Luck.

George Washington → The First President of the U.S.A.

"Founding Father of the U.S.A."

The American Declaration of Independence.

Abraham Lincoln → He was born in 1809 and was assassinated in 1865.

He became President of the USA in 1861

He was born in poor family.

The Gettysburg Address → During Civil War.

Edward Morgan Forster → An English novelist, short story writer and essayist.

The Passage to India → the greatest novel

The main characters are Dr. Aziz, Cyril Fielding, Adela Quested and Mrs Moore.

Joseph Conrad → One of the best writers in English language though he was of Polish Origin
Heart of Darkness.

James Joyce → Irish novelist and poet.
Ulysses.