TRANSLATION: Importance and Definition

❖ Language, Communication and Translation

- A certain language system has its own features and norms that people use to communicate with each other.
- An Arabic language speaker can understand what is spoken as he listens to somebody speaking Arabic and, of course, he can understand what is written as he reads an Arabic text.
- This is obviously logical because the speakers of a certain language can communicate with each other and understand the spoken and written texts of this language.
- BUT What if two sides who are speakers of two different languages need to communicate with each other for a certain purpose?
- Example 1: Company (A) speak only English
Company (B) speak only Arabic
- Both companies need services from each other....
  - ♥ How can they communicate?
  - ♥ How can they achieve their mutual goals?
- Example 2: Suppose that you are in China. You need to buy one million SR goods.
- The Chinese company gave you a contract written in Chinese and asked you to sign it?
- Have a look at the contract, please...
- You need a person who totally knows the two languages (Chinese and Arabic) to transfer the meaning of this contract to you.

❖ What does “Translation” mean?

- The term “translation” can refer to:
  - ♥ the general subject field
  - ♥ the product (the text that had been translated)
  - ♥ the process (the act of producing the translation) (Munday: 2008)
- Many authors tried to define “Translation”
- “Rendering the meaning of a text into another language in the way that the author intended the text.” (Newmark :1988)
- “author = the originator of the text whether it is oral or written”
- Translation is the general term referring to the transfer of thoughts and ideas from one language (source) to another (target), whether the languages are in written or oral form; whether the languages have established orthographies or do not have such standardization or whether one or both languages is based on signs, as with sign languages of the deaf. (Brislin, 1976)
- Translation is often regarded as a project for transferring meaning from one language to another (Farghal, 1999)
- All the previous mentioned definitions of the term “translation” talk about two key words:
  - ♥ transfer (interlingual communication)
  - ♥ meaning (denotative and connotative)

❖ Related Basic Definitions

- Text: Any given stretch of speech or writing assumed to make coherent whole. (Dickins: 2002)
- So.. A text may be
  - a single word like the sign: (قف)
  - or thousands of pages like: (كتاب تاريخ الرسل و الملوك) which consists of many volumes
- ♥ Source Text (ST): The text requiring translation.
- ♥ Target Text (TT): The text which is a translation of the ST.
- ♥ Source Language (SL): The language in which the ST is written.
- ♥ Target Language (TL): The language into which the ST is translated.
- ♥ Strategy: The translator’s overall plan consisting of a set of strategic decisions taken after an initial reading of the ST, but before starting detailed translation.

❖ Questions

1. A certain language system has its own features and norms that people use to communicate with each other.
2. You need a translator..... who totally knows both Chinese and Arabic languages to transfer to you the meaning of a certain contract written in Chinese language .
3. According to Newmark, SL writer and TL readership are two components of the Translation
4. SL and TL stand for : source language and Target language.....
5. “ Rendering the meaning of a text into another language in the way that the author intended the text.” This is the definition of "Translation....." according to Newmark.

Translation Studies and Samples of Text Types

❖ Translation Studies

- Translation studies is now understood to refer to the academic discipline concerned with the study of translation at large, including literary and non-literary translation, various forms of oral interpreting as well as dubbing and subtitling. (Baker, M. (ed.) 1998/2008)
- So, what is the relation between the Translation Studies and Text Types?

❖ Text Type

- Let's have a look at the following texts and try to see if they differ from each other!

▪ TEXT 1:

<<Hareton returned no answer.

<<Hareton! Hareton! Hareton! Do you hear?>>

<<Get off with you! he said fiercely.

Let me take that pipe>> she said, cautiously advancing her hand, and removing it from his mouth.

Before he could attempt to get it back, it was broken, and thrown in the fire. He swore at her, and seized another.

<<Stop! she cried. You must listen to me first, and I can't speak with those clouds floating in my face>.

She dwelt among the untrodden ways
Beside the springs of Dove,
A Maid whom there were none to praise
And very few to love:

A violet by a mossy stone
Half hidden from the eye!
—Fair as a star, when only one

Small Change

HOPES deferred rather than hopes dashed: that sums up the reaction of the transport lobby to the £1.8 billion in additional funding over the next three years that was announced this week. Representing a 25% increase in comparison with a 25% cut in the last parliament.

The concession is an important breakthrough, for which local authorities have long campaigned. London First, a business pressure group, estimated in a study, published last month, that a non-residential parking tax levied at an average of £750 per parking space in central and outer London could raise £300m per year, enough, for example, to bridge the investment backlog of London's Underground.

Text Types as Seen by Scholars – Part 1

❖ Texts are not all the Same

- "It is obvious that not all texts are the same type. We may distinguish between political texts, legal texts and medical texts; fairy tales, novels and short stories differ from newspaper reports, essays and scientific papers; food recipes, instructions booklets and advertisements may show similarities but they are not the same, expository texts differ from argumentative texts, etc. (Trosborg, 1998)

❖ Text not a word or a sentence

- Katharina Reiss (1979/1989) views the text, rather than the word or sentence, as the level at which communication is achieved and at which equivalence must be sought.

❖ Importance of Text Type

Both translators and those who write about translation have recognized the importance of the relationship between text type and translation process. The first and important step towards a suitable and considerable translation of any text is to identify the typology to which that text belongs. There are several classifications put by several scholars concerning text types.

A translator of any text necessarily needs to know which text type and what nature is that text, in order to be able to adequately produce a suitable target text.

❖ Text Type Classifications

- There are several classifications put by several scholars concerning text types.
- Basil Hatim & Ian Mason (1990)
- Hatim and Mason (1990) classified text types according to their rhetorical purposes:
  - ♥ Argumentative
  - ♥ Expositive
  - ♥ instruction-based.
- They divide instructional texts into two types: instruction without option, and instruction with option. Instruction without option includes texts such as laws. One is required to follow the 'instructions'
- (law, for instance); otherwise there may be a punishment.
- Peter Newmark (1988)
- Newmark depends on Buhler's functions of language to deal with text types. According to Buhler, there are three language functions:

- Expressive: Originator writer serious imaginative literature authoritative statements, autobiography, essays and personal correspondence
- Informative: topic of knowledge a textbook, a technical report, a scientific paper or agenda of a meeting
- Vocative: readership notices, publicity, propaganda, persuasive writing and advertisements
  - " Few texts are purely expressive informative or vocative: most include all three functions, with an emphasis on one of the three" ( Newmark,1988: 42)

❖ Katharina Reiss (1970s)

In the 1970s and depending on Bühler's typology, Katharina Reiss classified text types as follows:

- ♥ Informative
- ♥ Expressive
- ♥ Operative
- ♥ Audiomedial

- Katharina Reiss (1979/1989) views the text, rather than the word or sentence, as the level at which communication is achieved and at which equivalence must be sought.

❖ Questions

Choose the right answer:

1. All texts are ( different / the same / argumentative).
2. We can distinguish between political and medical texts. (True/ False)
3. Advertisements and scientific papers (don't / always / usually ) show similarities.
4. The first step to suitably translate a text is to :
( determine the long and short sentences / identify the text type / recognize the title)
5. Hatim and Mason classified text types according to their ( rhetorical purposes / length of paragraphs / language functions)
6. Hatim and Mason classified text types into three major categories. One of them is:
( appellative / vocative / argumentative )
7. According to Newmark, serious imaginative literature is a text type which is:
( expressive / vocative / informative)
8. The core of an expressive text type is: ( the topic / the readership / the writer )

Lecture 4

Text Types as Seen by Scholars Part 2

❖ Texts are not all the Same

- "It is obvious that not all texts are the same type. We may distinguish between political texts, legal texts and medical texts; fairy tales, novels and short stories differ from newspaper reports, essays and scientific papers; food recipes, instructions booklets and advertisements may show similarities but they are not the same, expository texts differ from argumentative texts, etc. (Trosborg, 1998)

❖ Text Type Classifications

Katharina Reiss (1970s)

- In the 1970s and depending on Bühler's three-way categorization of the functions of language, Katharina Reiss links the three functions to their corresponding language dimensions and to the text types or communicative situations in which they are used:
  - Informative
    - (1) 'Plain communication of facts': information, knowledge, opinions, etc. The language dimension used to transmit the information is logical or referential the content or 'topic' is the main focus of the communication, and the text type is informative.
  - Expressive
    - (2) 'Creative composition': the author uses the aesthetic dimension of language. The author or 'sender' is foregrounded, as well as the form of the message, and the text type is expressive.
  - Operative
    - (3) 'Inducing behavioral responses': the aim of the appellative function is to appeal to or persuade the reader or 'receiver' of the text to act in a certain way. The form of language is dialogic the focus is appellative and Reiss calls this text type operative.
  - Audiomedial texts
    - (4) such as films and visual and spoken advertisements which supplement the other three functions with visual images, music, etc.

❖ Reiss (1971) Text types

- Functional characteristics of text types and links to translation methods(adapted form Reiss 1971)

Text type	Informative	Expressive	Vocative
Language function	Informative (representing objects and facts)	Expressive (expressing sender's attitude)	Appellative (making an appeal to text receiver)
Language dimension	Logical	Aesthetic	Dialogic
Text focus	Content-focused	Form-based	Appellative- focused
TT should	Transmit referential Content	Transmit aesthetic form	Elicit desired response
Translation method	'Plain prose", explicitation as required	'Identifying' method, adopt perspective of ST author	'Adaptive', equivalent effect

❖ Suitable Translation Methods

1. The TT of an informative text should transmit the full referential or conceptual content of the ST. The translation should be in plain prose, without redundancy and with the use of explicitation when required.
2. The TT of an expressive text should transmit the aesthetic and artistic form of the ST. The translation should use the identifying method, with the translator adopting the standpoint of the ST author.
3. The TT of an operative text should produce the desired response in the target text receiver. The translation should employ the adaptive method creating an equivalent effect among TT readers.
4. Audio-medial texts require what Reiss calls the supplementary method, supplementing written words with visual images and music.

❖ Questions

1. According to Reiss, in an informative text type the _____ is the main focus of the communication.
  - a) dimension
  - b) content
  - c) communication
  - d) text type

2. According to Reiss, in an informative text type the language dimension used to transmit the information is _____.
  - a) logical
  - b) theoretical
  - c) communicative
  - d) numerical

Text Type and Genre

James Dickins - Sandor Hervey - Ian Higgins - (2002)

❖ Text Type and Genre

- The term “text type” is often used in a similar sense of “genre”.
- Dickins, Hervey and Higgins opted for using the term “genre” instead of “text type”

❖ Genre

- Dickins, Hervey and Higgins distinguished five broad categories of “genre” :
  - ♥ Literary
  - ♥ Religious
  - ♥ Philosophical
  - ♥ Empirical
  - ♥ Persuasive
- Literary Genres:
  - poetry, fiction and drama
  - Features of Texts in This Category:
  - these texts concern a world autonomously but not controlled by the physical world outside they contain features of “expression” which create features of “content”.
- Religious Genres:
  - Features of Texts in This Category:
  - These texts imply the existence of a religious world that is not fictive, but has its own realities and truths. So the author is not free to create the world that animates the subject matter but to be merely instrumental in exploring it.
- Philosophical Genres:
  - Features of Texts in This Category:
  - These texts have a “world” of ideas.
  - Pure mathematics is the best example of philosophical genres.
- Empirical Genres:
  - Features of Texts in This Category:
  - These texts purports to deal with the real world as it is experienced by observers.
  - They are more or less informative, and it is understood to take an objective view of observable phenomena.
  - Examples: scientific and technological

▪ Persuasive Genres:

• Features of Texts in This Category:

- These texts aim at getting listeners or readers to behave in prescribed or suggested ways that is: getting an audience to take a certain course of action, and perhaps explaining how to take it.
- Examples: instruction manuals, laws, rules and regulations, propaganda leaflets, newspaper opinion columns and editorials, and advertisements.

❖ Before Beginning to Translate a Text

Before you begin translating any text, you need to ask yourself the following important questions:

- ♥ What is the message content of this particular ST?
  - ♥ What are its salient linguistic features?
  - ♥ What are its principal effects?
  - ♥ What genre does it belong to and what audience is it aimed at?
  - ♥ What are the functions and intended audience of my translation?
- These questions are strategic decisions which are the first set of reasoned decisions taken by the translator before starting the translation in detail.

❖ Decisions of Detail:

- Reasoned decisions concerning the specific problems of grammar, vocabulary encountered in translating particular expressions in their particular context.

❖ Questions

1. Poetry, fiction and drama are part of _____ genre.
  - a) religious
  - b) empirical
  - c) literary
  - d) persuasive
2. With regard to religious genre, the author _____ to create the world that animates the subject matter but to be merely instrumental in exploring it.
  - a) totally free
  - b) partially free
  - c) not free
  - d) all mentioned

Practical Translation 1

❖ Practical 1

In light of the theoretical background outlined before, discuss the strategic decisions that you have to take before starting detailed translation of the following text then translate it into English:

فتقف الجماعات ولا تلبث أن تجد نفسها تجري هي الأخرى.

❖ According to scholars we referred to before what sort of text is this?

Basil Hatim & Ian Mason (1990):

- Argumentative
- Expositive
- Instruction-based.

Peter Newmark(1988) :

Before you begin translating any text, you need to ask yourself the following important questions:

- What is the message content of this particular ST?
This part of text is taken from a short story which mainly aims at entertainment and humor.
- What are its salient linguistic features?
There are various kinds of word-play, metaphors of water, narrative, repetition
- What genre does it belong to and what audience is it aimed at?
Literary genre
- What are the functions and intended audience of my translation?
entertainment and humor / general audience: educated and non-educated
- How to (translate) deal with names of people? places? things? figures of speech?
Discuss the presence of the translator!

❖ Translation of the text into English:

أن ترى واحدا يجري في منية النصر فذلك حادثا ... وكأنه صوت

Grammatically this , أن clause is nominal. That is to say, the first clause means something like 'The fact that you see someone running in Munyat El Nasr'. This English formulation gives a slightly different emphasis from the ST: in the ST. the 'incident' is the seeing of someone running.

An idiomatic way of conveying this focus is to use an if-clause, as in our TI, although, grammatically, it is still the seeing that is the event. A more coherent alternative would be something like 'Seeing someone running in Munyat El Nasr is a most unusual experience'; but this entails a wholesale switch of focus from the runner to the watcher — probably a greater loss than the slight change of emphasis in our TI'.

أن ترى واحدا يجري في منية النصر فذلك حادثا ... وكأنه صوت السريّة في عربة بوليس النجدة فلا بد أن وراء جريه أمراً مثيراً. وما أجمل أن يحدث في هذه البلدة الهادئة البطيئة امر مثير!

If you see someone running in Munyat El Nasr, that's an event. Just as when you hear a police siren*, you feel there must be something exciting behind it. And how wonderful it is when something exciting ripples the calm of this quiet, slow village.

*'Police rescue-car' is unidiomatic in English. 'Police-car siren' would be possible, but 'police siren' seems the most common usage.

و في يوم الجمعة ذاك لم يكن واحد فقط هو الذي يجري في منية النصر، الواقع أنه كانت هناك حركة جري واسعة النطاق و لم يكن احد يعرف السبب ..

That Friday, there wasn't just one person running in Munyat El Nasr - there was a mass of movement of runners, and nobody knew why.

فالشوارع والأزقة تسبح في هدوئها الأبدي ويتناوبها ذلك الركود الذي يستتب في العادة بعد صلاة الجمعة ، حيث ترش أرضها بما الغسيل المختلط بالرغوة والزهرة ورائحة الصابون الرخيص ، وحيث النسوة في الداخل مشغولات بأعداد الغداء والرجال في الخارج يتسكعون ويتصعلكون الى أن ينتهي أعداد الغداء..

The streets and alleys were floating with their perpetual calm, and that stagnation which generally sets in following the Friday prayer, when the ground is sprayed with foamy bluish washing water scented with cheap soap, and when women inside busy themselves preparing lunch, while the men loaf around outside until the food is finally ready.

وإذا بهذا الهدوء كله يتعكر بسيقان ضخمة غليظة تجري وتهز البيوت، ويمر الجاري بجماهة جالسة أمام بيت فلا ينسى وهو يجري ان يلقي السلام ، ويرد الجالسون سلامه ويحاولون سؤاله عن سبب الجري ولكنه يكون قد نفذ.

Suddenly, this calm was distributed by a pair of huge, burly legs running along and shaking the houses. As the runner passed a group of men sitting in front of a house, he did not forget to run and greet them. The men returned his greeting, and tried to ask him why he was running; but by that time he had shot past.

حينئذ يفغون ويحاولون معرفة السبب وطبعاً لا يستطيعون ، وحينئذ يدفعهم حب الاستطلاع الى المشي ثم يقترح أحدهم الإسراع فيسرعون ويجدون أنفسهم آخر الأمر يجرون ، ولا ينسون أن يلفوا السلام على جماعات الجالسين فتقف الجماعات ولا تلبث أن تجد نفسها تجري هي الأخرى.

So they stood up to try and find out why, but of course to no avail; then their curiosity got the better of them, and they began to walk; then one of them suggested that they go a little quicker. Finally, they found themselves running, but they did not forget to greet other groups of sitters, who themselves stood up and before long found they too were running.

get the better of somebody

if a feeling gets the better of you, it becomes too strong to control Finally curiosity got the better of her and she opened the letter. Try to remain calm - don't let your anger get the better of you.

Practical Translation 2

❖ Practical 2

In light of the theoretical background outlined before, discuss the strategic decisions that you have to take before starting detailed translation of the following text then translate it into English. The translation will be presented to educated people.

❖ Small Change

HOPES deferred rather than hopes dashed: that sums up the reaction of the transport lobby to the £1.8 billion in additional funding over the next three years that was announced this week. Representing a 25% increase in comparison with a 25% cut in the last parliament under the Tories, it represents a clear shift in priorities. But given the problems noted by the chancellor in Britain's "overcrowded, under-financed, under-planned and under-maintained transport system", the additional spending is relatively small. Public transport does not come cheap—a single light rail scheme can easily swallow up several hundred million pounds.

The public spending statement, so far as transport was concerned, was a case of a dog that didn't bark. Before the chancellor got up, officials in the transport department had been told by Treasury colleagues that he would announce that in future local authorities would be allowed to spend revenues raised by urban congestion charges and taxes on non-residential parking. The odd silence on this point has led to speculation about last minute Downing Street intervention. But sources close to the deputy prime minister, John Prescott, insist that an announcement on road charges and parking taxes is imminent. The formal retreat from the Treasury's long-sustained opposition to earmarking tax revenue is now expected in the transport white paper to be published on July 20th.

The concession is an important breakthrough, for which local authorities have long campaigned. London First, a business pressure group, estimated in a study, published last month, that a non-residential parking tax levied at an average of £750 per parking space in central and outer London could raise £300m per year, enough, for example, to bridge the investment backlog of London's Underground.

Nothing, however, will happen quickly. When the transport minister, Gavin Strang, said recently that "high earning car owners need have no fear from next month's white paper", he was off-message but almost certainly correct. Both road pricing and non-residential parking taxes require primary legislation. But a major transport bill appears to have been ruled out for the next session of Parliament. All that is now being promised is a bill setting up a new Rail Authority. Even this will take at least 18 months before it is established. And even when it is, there are questions whether it will have the powers and funding necessary to have much influence on the poor performance of many of the train operating companies.

The central thrust of the transport white paper will stress the need for regional initiatives to solve Britain's transport problems. Part of the increased funding announced this week will be used to pay for 150 local plans aimed at restraining car traffic by making bus travel more attractive, and improving facilities for cyclists.

- The target country assumed of this translation is Saudi Arabia. The currency used in Saudi Arabia is Saudi Riyal.
- This is a newspaper article which is, in terms of text typology, mainly informative and, to some extent, expressive.

When the writer talks about figures (£1.8 billion), rates (£750 per parking), percentages (25% cut) facts and names, he informs the reader with these facts.

(Informative)

- Through his commentary on these facts, the writer expresses his opinion e.g. "public transport does not come cheap: a single light rail scheme can easily swallow up several hundred million pounds". " ... a case of a dog that didn't park." and the title itself ( Small Change ).

- Assuming that this translation is going to be presented to (educated generalist), and because the text contains specific cultural expressions and words related to Britain, it's essential to opt for exoticism with its maximum presence of translator.

Actually, the financial system expressions and words in Britain are different from those in Saudi Arabia. So some expressions will be replaced by the most suitable equivalents in the Saudi system.

Maximum presence of the translator is seen primarily in newspaper articles where additional information is systematically provided throughout the main body of the text.

❖ small change

- the problem: wordplay
- parameters : functions of the ST and the TT - function of the pun

This word may have two meanings :the first one is ( the 25% increase which is a slight change ) meaning the amount of money ,1.8 billion, is relatively like a small change as far as the huge budget of the government is concerned while the second is (coins with low value).

- equivalence : تغير بسيط
- back translation: simple change

❖ £ 1.8 billion + - £750 + several hundred million pounds + -£ 300m

- the problem: currency

It's important to know how the amounts of money the text contains are going to be used.

- parameters : target country ( Saudi Arabia), exchange rate :
The exchange rate at that time , time reference : 18 July 1998
and typographical conventions.
- procedure: cultural substitution

❖ several hundred million pounds

The word ( several) in "several million hundred pounds" will simply be omitted because in Arabic hundred cannot be qualified with words like many or several. It is translated as مئات الملايين back translation: hundred millions of Riyals.

❖ £ 1.8 billion

- equivalence : ( ما يعادلها في ذلك الوقت من الريال السعودي ) ٨, ١ مليار جنيه إسترليني
- back translation: 1.8 billion sterling pound( )

❖ £ 300m :

In Arabic, the numbers are transcribed in letters and the abbreviation "m" is replaced by the word million.

- equivalence: ثلاثمائة مليون جنيه إسترليني( ما يعادلها في ذلك الوقت من الريال السعودي )
- back translation: 300 million sterling pounds

❖ £750

- equivalence: 750 جنيه إسترليني ( ما يعادلها في ذلك الوقت من الريال السعودي )
- back translation: 750 sterling pound

❖ the chancellor + treasury

- the problem : cultural reference
- parameters : text functions, cultural coherence, and readership's knowledge of source culture
- procedure: The two terms mentioned above have specific connotations in the British financial system which appears to be sophisticated when compared to the Saudi system which refers only to the minister and ministry of finance. Both of the terms will be substituted to compensate the loss.
- equivalence :
  1. chancellor وزير المالية
  2. Treasury وزارة المالية
- back translation:
  1. Minister of Finance
  2. Ministry of Finance

❖ Britain's " overcrowded, under-financed, under-planned and under maintained transport system"

- the problem:( grammatical equivalence ) This relates to morphological and syntactic difference between English and Arabic.
- parameters: Compound words are translated into Arabic as an adjective and a noun. The rules of combination and word order of the target language should be taken into consideration.
- procedure: substitution
- equivalence نظام النقل البريطاني شديد الازدحام و قليل التمويل والتخطيط و الصيانة
- back translation: the British transport system which is overcrowded and lacks for finance, planning and maintenance.

❖ urban congestion charges and taxes on non residential parking + road charges and parking taxes

- problem : (cultural reference ) This system is not used in Saudi Arabia because parking is free depending on the fact that there is no congestion made by traffic which may lead to a legislation with regard to this issue.
- The parameters I used are: functions of the ST and the TT, readership's knowledge of the source culture.
- procedure: The concept itself does not exist . The aim here is to render the meaning not the concept. Literal translation and definition are used.

- equivalence: رسوم الاختناقات المرورية و الضرائب المفروضة على الزوار لاستخدام المواقف غير السكنية للسيارات
- back translation: fees imposed at the time of traffic junk and taxes imposed on visitors for using non residential parks.
- The equivalent of " road charges and parking taxes" is رسوم استخدام الطرق و المواقف
- back-translated as : fees for using roads and parking

❖ Downing Street

- problem : (cultural reference) This is a name of a place which is related to the British government headquarter.
- parameters: cultural coherence, and readership's knowledge of source culture.
- procedure: This word is to be rendered by definition.
- equivalence مقر الحكومة البريطانية
- back translation: the British Government headquarters

❖ deputy prime minister, John Prescott + the transport minister, Gavin Strang

- problem : (cultural reference )
- The parameters are: text functions, cultural coherence, and readership's knowledge of source culture
- procedures: calque and cultural borrowing ( transliterating ) because both concepts exist in both British and Saudi system .When writing these names in Arabic letters, attention must be paid to the sound rules in the target language:
  - the "p" sound will be written "ب"---- " b "
  - the "v" will be replaced by ف ---- "f"
  - and the "g" will be rendered as "j".
- equivalence نائب رئيس الوزراء جون بريسكوت وزير النقل جيفن سترانغ
- back translation: the deputy prime minister John Precostt the transport minister Gavin Strang

❖ transport white paper + transport bill

- problem : (cultural reference ) This expression " white paper" is an idiom which exists in the British system not in the Saudi.
- parameters : text functions, cultural coherence, and readership's knowledge of source culture.
- procedure: This expression may suitably be translated through compensation.
- equivalence of ( transport white paper) : تقرير تقدمه الحكومة لم يأخذ الصفة (مشروع قانون) الرسمية
- back translation: a law presented by the government which is not officially approved.
- equivalence of ( transport white paper) : تقرير متعلق بالنقل
- back translation: A transport law

❖ London First

- problem : (cultural reference)
- parameters : text functions, and readership's knowledge of source culture.
- procedure: Because there is a definition provided after the word in ST, the suitable choice "cultural borrowing "
- equivalence : لندن فيرست
- back translation: London First

❖ central and outer London

- problem : ( cultural reference)
- parameters : : text functions, cultural coherence, and readership's knowledge of source culture.
- procedure: The name of the city " London" is known and used by Arabs and can be borrowed .The rest of the expression may be literally translated so I opted for combination between cultural borrowing and literal translation.
- equivalence : وسط و ضواحي لندن
- back translation: central and suburban of London

❖ London Underground

- problem: ( cultural reference ) This means of transport is not available in Saudi Arabia.
- parameters : : text functions, cultural coherence, and readership's knowledge of source culture.
- procedure: People in Saudi Arabia heard about that through Egyptian media where "underground" is widely used and named مترو الأنفاق (cultural borrowing and lexical creation).
- equivalence مترو أنفاق لندن
- back translation: London Metro

❖ new Rail Authority

- problem: cultural reference
- parameters : : text functions, cultural coherence, and readership's knowledge of source culture.
- procedure: I used communicative translation because the word " rail " in English isn't used in Arabic.
- equivalence : مؤسسة تدير خدمة سكة الحديد
- back translation: a corporation for running rail services

❖ the transport department + local authorities

- The problem is that the word department in Saudi Arabia is connected with a part of a college or university and never means ministry . It is translated as " وزارة " back translated as " ministry ".
- "Local authorities" : calque translation is used because it is culturally transparent that it exists in both legal systems in Britain and Saudi Arabia.
- equivalence of ( department ) : وزارة
- back translation: ministry
- equivalence of ( local authority ) : السلطات المحلية
- back translation: local authority

Practical Translation 4

❖ Practical 4

In light of the theoretical background outlined before, discuss the strategic decisions that you have to take before starting detailed translation of the following text then translate it into English:

❖ Tourist Brochure (Advertisement)

ST

Outdoor 'Adventure Tourism' is expanding at a fast rate in Jordan, and promises to remain one of the most dynamic and innovative travel industry sectors for years to come.

تتوسع سياحة المغامرات و التشويق بسرعة كبيرة في الأردن. و قد بدأت العديد من الشركات الأردنية بالتخصص في سياحة المغامرات، موفرين بذلك مزيجاً من الأمان و المغامرة و التسهيلات المريحة.

TT

The underlined part of the ST is totally omitted from the TT. This is due to the target audience who are not interested so much in adventures in the case of Arab audience so this information is omitted here. The English audience is very interested in adventures so the information is added there.

ST

Several Jordanian companies have started to specialize in eco-tourism and action tourism, providing the combination of safety, adventure, and comfortable facilities that make action tourism such an exciting proposition today.

و قد بدأت العديد من الشركات الأردنية بالتخصص في سياحة المغامرات ، موفرين بذلك مزيجاً من الأمان و المغامرة و التسهيلات المريحة.

The two underlined parts of the ST are omitted from the TT.

The first part is about "eco—tourism" which means the following:

Ecotourism is travel to fragile, pristine. and usually protected areas that strives to be low impact and small scale. It helps educate the traveler: provides hinds for conservation and fosters respect for different culture.

This is obviously something that westerners are interested in.

A few people in the Arab world pay attention o that kind of tourism (eco-tourism) for some reasons. So it is no use to attract the target audience to such a kind of tourism.

The second part talks about action tourism in detail which the Arab target audiences are not interested in. so it is omitted from the target text. But the new Arab generation may be attracted to that kind of tourism in the coming years that this information may be added in the coming updates.

ST

Often referred to as the white city due to its low size canvas of stone houses, Amman offers a variety of historical sites. Towering above Amman, the site of the earliest fortifications is now subject to numerous excavations which have revealed remains from the Neolithic period as well as from the Hellenistic and late Roman to Arab Islamic Ages.

TT

guaranteed sunshine for eight months of the year;

TT

يملك الأردن أفضلية كبيرة في هذا القطاع ، تركز على موجدات عديدة : طقس ملائم لمدة ثمانية أشهر في السنة؛

The part that is important here is that of the weather which is changeable in the west in general. People who suffer from this will be attracted by the fact that the weather in Jordan stays sunny for many months without any opportunity for any little rain. So it is guaranteed sunshine for eight months of the year. The Arab audience especially from the very hot Gulf region is fed up with sunny weather and just need suitable weather with suitable degrees of temperature. The skopos is to attract both types of clients in the suitable way depending on the translator's previous knowledge of the weather circumstances in both different regions.

ST

Jordan has great comparative advantage in this sector, based on several assets: guaranteed sunshine for eight months of the year; a base of powerful, unique cultural attractions such as Petra, Jerash, Bethany Beyond the Jordan. And the early Islamic Desert Castles; and, a wide range of very different, often stunning natural environments that are easily accessible and virtually undiscovered by the tourism industry.

TT

يملك الأردن أفضلية كبيرة في هذا القطاع ، تركز على موجدات عديدة : طقس ملائم لمدة ثمانية أشهر في السنة؛ و مجموعة من المواقع التاريخية الفريدة مثل البتراء و جرش و القصور الصحراوية فضلاً عن البيئات الطبيعية المتنوعة

Each for a certain reason, all the underlined parts are omitted from the TT as can be noticed in reading the backtranslation. The third one which is "Bethany Beyond the Jordan" is omitted from the TT in the whole translation of the brochures issued by the JIB. Ms Tuhamah was asked about the reason for that omission and if it was for religious reasons and she replied: ' may be'. A full analysis of that omission will be presented later on.

The last part of the above text is managed and some parts of it are omitted. This part is "a wide range of very different, often stunning natural environments that are easily accessible and virtually undiscovered by the tourism industry “which is translated as “ فضلاً عن البيئات الطبيعية المتنوعة ( in addition to different natural environments). It is just these issues (different and natural environments) that the Arabic audiences are interested in while the English audience who have a lot of nature may need a wide range of very different, often stunning natural environments to be attracted to come and visit. Furthermore, as these audiences are interested in adventure and new sites more than normal nature, they may be attracted by sites which are not only natural but are easily accessible and virtually undiscovered by the tourist industry.

All the underlined parts of the TI are added to the TI because of the English target audience needs and interests which are different from those of the Arabic.

ST

Stunning in its natural beauty. Wadi Rum epitomizes the romance of the desert. With its “moonscape” of ancient valleys and towering sandstone mountains rising out of the sand. Wadi Rum is also home to several Bedouin tribes who live in scattered camps throughout the area.

This is a direct translation of the ST as if it was backtrabslated into English with a high level of language in both English and Arabic. The TT is very close to the source text.

Practical Translation 5 Translating Poetry

English metre is syllable-and-stress metre. The line is defined in terms of feet. A foot is a conventional group of stressed and/or unstressed syllables in a particular order. A line of traditional verse consists of a fixed number of particular feet. For example:

The cur/few tolls/the knell/ of par/ting day/

This line has five feet; that is, it is a pentameter. In this particular case, the feet have one unstressed followed by one stressed syllable. This is known as an iamb, or iambic foot. A line consisting of five iambs is an iambic pentameter. It is the most common English line, found in the work of great playwrights and poets. The commonest other feet are:

trochee	(adj. trochaic):	When the/ pie was/ opened/
dactyl	(adj. dactylic):	Merrily/ chatting and/ clattering/
anapest	(adj. anapestic):	And made ci/der inside/her inside/

Most poems do not have a regular beat throughout. This would be intolerably dreary. Even limericks are very rarely exclusively anapestic. The opening lines of Keats's 'To Autumn' ( 7.1.1) are examples of typical variations on the basic iambic pentameter. These lines still count as iambic pentameters, because they do have five feet. they are predominantly iambic, and the rest of the poem has these qualities.

One other sort of English metre is worth mentioning, strong-stress metre. This is different from syllable-and-stress metre, in that only the stresses count in describing the line, the number of weak syllables being variable.

Much modern verse uses this metre, often in combination with syllable-and stress metre.

Like the English metrical line, the line in Arabic is defined in terms of feet. However, while English metre involves both syllable and stress, Arabic metre is based entirely around syllable-type. The basic distinction is between short syllables (consonant + short vowel) and long syllables (consonant + long vowel, or consonant + short vowel + consonant). All Arabic syllables are treated as beginning with a consonant. Accordingly, there is no ambiguity about where one syllable ends and another begins.

Thus in the word دَمٌّ the first syllable is da and the second syllable is mun. Vowels at the end of the hemistich or line are always scanned long, irrespective of their quantity in prose.

Feet consist of varying numbers of syllables (most commonly three or four syllables), combinations of these feet making up a particular metre. A large number of metres are recognized in classical Arabic poetry. Compositions are normally in a single metre. However, the fact that metres permit a degree of variation in the syllable types used to constitute their feet means that there is normally a degree of rhythmic variation within an individual composition. In some metres, double short syllables within one line typically alternate with one long syllable in other line, while in others a long syllable in one line alternates with a short syllable in another.

Most classical poems are of the قصيدة form, a قصيدة having a variable number of lines (بيت , p1. أبيات), normally not more than one hundred. Lines can have up to thirty syllables divided into two hemistichs ( شطر or مصرع ) The first half of the line is called the صدر - 'chest' (also الشطر الأول 'the first half'), and the second the عجز 'rump' (also الشطر الثاني 'the second hair'). These are separated by a gap in the text which is somewhat longer than that which standardly occurs between words. The number of syllables per line is variable in some metres and fixed in others. A single rhyme, sometimes termed a monorhyme, occurs at the end of every line. First lines (مطلع , p1) often have rhyming hemistichs.

Nor be troubled by the night's event;
Be steadfast in the face of tenors;
And if your faults be many in the eyes of men,

فَأَنْتَ وَ مَالُكَ الدُّنْيَا سَوَاءُ

وَرِزْقُكَ لَيْسَ يُنْقِصُهُ التَّأْيِي
وَلَا حُزْنٌ يَدُومُ وَلَا سُرُورٌ
إِذَا مَا كُنْتَ ذَا قَلْبٍ قَتُوعٌ

To wait will not reduce your daily bread
Sadness and joy do not endure,
But he whose soul may rest content

Nor is there increase found through anxious dread.
And neither ease, nor times of dearth,
Is as the owner of the earth.

فَلَا أَرْضٌ تَقِيهِ وَلَا سَمَاءُ
إِذَا نَزَلَ الْقَضَا ضَاقَ الْفَضَاءُ
فَمَا يَغْنِي عَنِ الْمَوْتِ الدَّوَاءُ

وَمَنْ نَزَلَتْ بِسَاحَتِهِ الْمَنَآيَا
وَأَرْضُ اللَّهِ وَاسِعَةٌ وَلَكِنْ
دَعِ الْأَيَّامَ تَغْدِرُ كُلَّ حِينٍ

He whose house is touched by doom,
God's earth is vast, but at fate's fall
Then let the days betray at every breath;

Heaven and earth will not relieve.
The whole of space gives no reprieve.
There is no cure can cure man of death.

Practical Translation 6 & 7

❖ Practical 6

In light of the theoretical background outlined before, discuss the strategic decisions that you have to take before starting detailed translation of the following text then translate it into English:

الزحار العصوي

مرض انتاني يمتاز تشريحياً بالتهاب الأمعاء الغليظة يسببه عصيات من نوع شيجلا و تدخل إلى الجسم بالطريق المعدي المعوي بواسطة الطعام و الماء و الأصابع الملوثة. و تنطرح الجراثيم بعدد وافر أثناء الدور الحاد للمرض مع البراز السائل. و قد يكون ذلك خلال دور النقاهة و حتى بعد شفاء المريض تماماً و قد يظهر الزحار بشكل وبائي حيث يجتمع الناس و تنعدم الشروط الصحية و النظافة. و تساعد شروط الطقس الحار في البلاد الإستوائية على انتشار المرض بواسطة الذباب

انتاني	Infectious
طريق	Tract
انطرح	To excrete
ترفع حروري	Rise in temperature (because of fever), fever, high temperature
زحير	Tenesmus
وذمة	Oedema however inflamed mucosa seems to be the more standard English term in the TT context

The following terms are particularly problematic because they involve odd or possibly misleading ST formulations in such cases the translator would need to consult the author or an expert before finally releasing the TT

الطريق المعدي المعوي	Gastro – intestinal – tract Although this is what the ST says the usual phrase in English is faecal – oral route
قشع زحاري	Catarrhal dysentery This is an old term , hardly in current use , meaning stools that contain only mucus . this looks right in the context except that it denotes a mild form of the disease .
تنظير المستقيم	proctoscopy

(ii) TT (from Al-Muhammad 1993: 235—6, with some amendments)

Bacillary Dysentery

This is an infectious disease which is characterized anatomically by the inflammation of the large intestine. It is caused by bacilli of the genus Shigella. It enters the body through the gastro-intestinal tract, via food, water, or unwashed hands. Bacteria are excreted in great numbers during the acute phase of the illness within loose stools. This may occur during convalescence, and even after the patient has recovered completely. Bacillary dysentery may appear epidemically in crowded populations where there is lack of cleanliness and poor sanitation. The hot climatic conditions in tropical countries aid the spread of the disease through flies.

الصفحة السريرية

آلام بطنية شديدة، ترفع حروري، زحير، ويظهر الاسهال خلال بضع ساعات من بدء المرض، ويكون البراز سائلا بادئ الامر إلا أنه يصبح مائيا بسرعة، و يترافق بمواد مخاطية وقيحية، وفي بعض الاحيان يكون مدمى. وقد يشتد الاسهال ويتكرر ليحوي فقط مواد مخاطية دموية تسمى ب (القشع الزحاري) . وتسوء الحالة العامة إذا ما استمر الاسهال، وللمرض حالات خفيفة وشديدة . يتم التشخيص بفحص البراز، وتنظير المستقيم الذي يوضح وجود وذمة و التهاب في المستقيم مع تقرحات واسعة متقطعة إنما سطحية.

Clinical Features

Severe abdominal pains, fever, and tenesmus. Diarrhoea often occurs several hours after the onset of the disease. In the initial stages, the stool is loose, but quickly becomes watery. It is accompanied by mucus, purulent exudate, and sometimes blood. The diarrhoea may become more sever and persistent and contain only bloody mucus. This is called catarrhal dysentery. The patient's general state worsens if diarrhoea persists. The illness has severe and mild forms. It is diagnosed through stool culture, and through proctoscopy, which normally confirms oedema, inflammation of the rectum, and transversally distributed ulcerations which, though large, superficial.
